1977 Elbala Elba, Alabama

Our World:

The ringing of the bells
The ticking of the clocks
Those seemingly never ending classes

The hours of work and labor and the joy which closely followed completion

The homework, reports, tests and exams
The satisfaction of accomplishment

The slamming of doors and the opening of new ones

The blank and thoughtless moments when there's nothing left to think

The moments we laughed
The ones we cried

The sweetness of victory
The bitterness of defeat

The joys and pains of growing
The lasting friendships and the love we share

And the realization that with our high school years at an end
our lives are at their beginning
We have opened to ourselves . . .

A WORLD

RIGHT: The Elba Color Guard gave its usual fine performance.

BELOW: Football was an ever-important facet of our world.

OF OUR OWN

ABOVE: Tension mounts as these young ladies compete to be "Little Miss Elba."

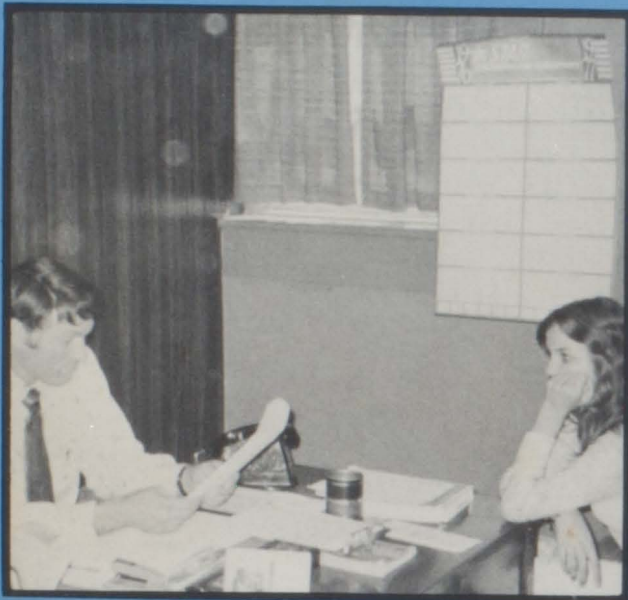

BELOW: EHS has an environment all its own. Although it spans just a small area, its personality deeply touches us.

We Have Crossed

SEAS

ABOVE: "This will be on your record."

BELOW: Troubles come in all models, colors, and styles.

BELOW: The annual--talk about trouble. Wow!

OF TROUBLE

RIGHT: We're down, but never out.

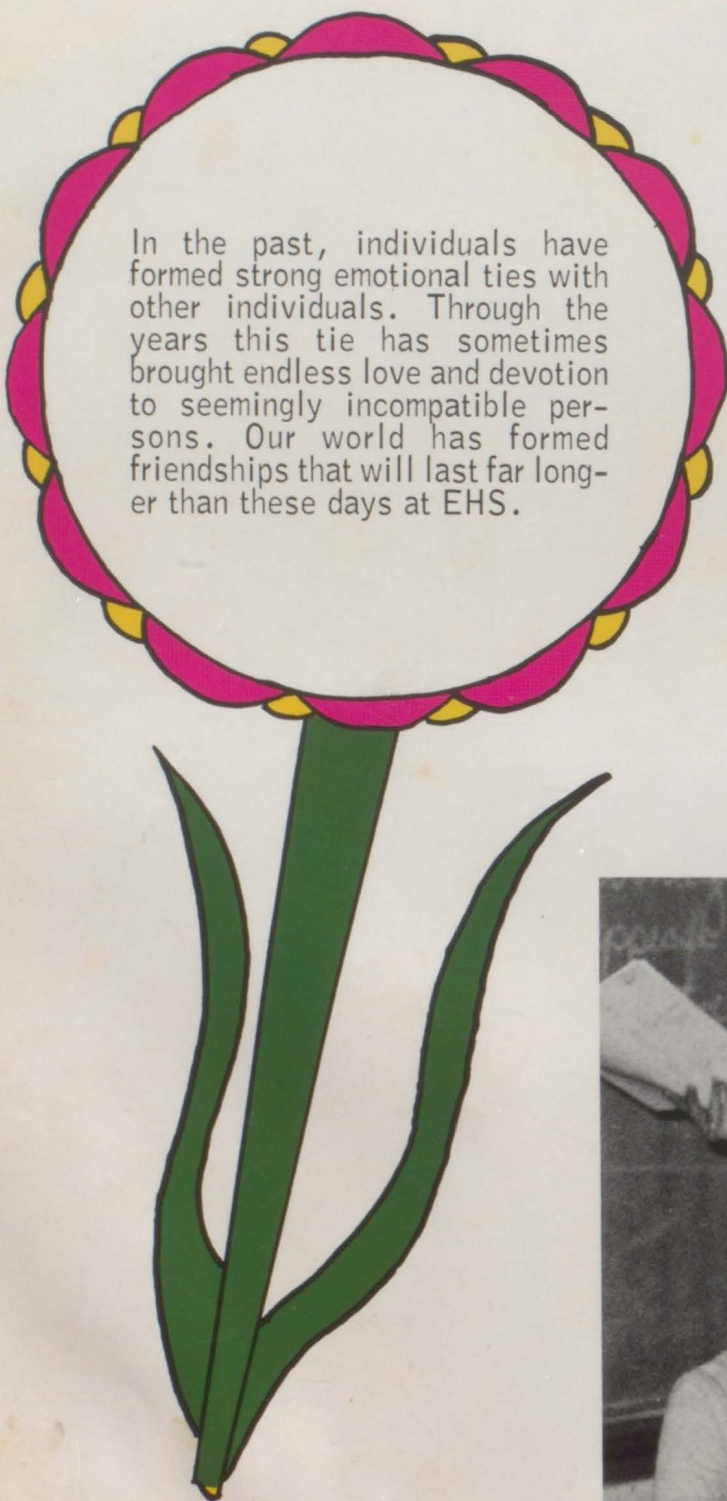

BELOW: What's black and gold and wet all over?

What makes up trouble? A Trip to Coach Powell's office? A lost football game? A low score on that big test? Everyday begins with high expectation of smooth sailing, but sometimes we just spring a leak. Even though our world brings problems, they strengthen our lives and prepare us for the future.

Friendships Have BLOSSOMED

In the past, individuals have formed strong emotional ties with other individuals. Through the years this tie has sometimes brought endless love and devotion to seemingly incompatible persons. Our world has formed friendships that will last far longer than these days at EHS.

BELOW: "Friends" is the greatest word in the English language. Ask Mrs. Butts or Mrs. King.

ABOVE: Friendships come in all sizes.

BELOW: What better way to get through the day than with a friend?

BELOW: Friends are created when some common goal is met.

We Have Touched The

ABOVE: We all have our dreams of what our future will be.

BELOW: What goes through a player's mind when he's wet and freezing?

ABOVE: Excedrin headache number 8 a.m.

HEAVENS With Our Dreams

LEFT: "Hands on home row keys."
Dinnnnng!

ABOVE: Youth is full of dreams; too bad we have to grow up.

BELOW: Mr. Sharpless helps someone with his dreams of the future.

The teacher calls it day dreaming; the student calls it a necessary moment of meditation in the busy school day. But nevertheless these moments when our minds wander to our most secret dreams are important times in our total learning experience. Our world brings the intangible closer to reality.

Smiles Have BRIGHTENED Our Lives

We wake up late for school and don't even have time for breakfast. And to top it off, someone has our parking space. It's just turning out to be one of those days; but as we walk down the hall, someone smiles and greets us with a big "good morning." Our world is going to be all right after all. A smile is a constant companion as we weather bad times and share the joy of the good ones.

BELOW: Even though some days are long and tiring, smiles abound. Lisa Galimore shows her good spirits.

BELOW: These students take time to display their beautiful--er--smiles?

We Have Climbed

MOUNTAINS OF LEAD

ABOVE: "Woowee! I got it! I got it..."

"Love" is the word in the English language that expresses a deep feeling for some person or thing. It is this love that forms constant companions in happiness, but sometimes even tears people apart in sorrow. It is more than mere friendship; it is understanding. Our world is filled with love, and all are touched by it.

ABOVE: There are all kinds of love, such as a teacher's for her class.

BELOW: Sam and Pam are just one pair of steadies at EHS.

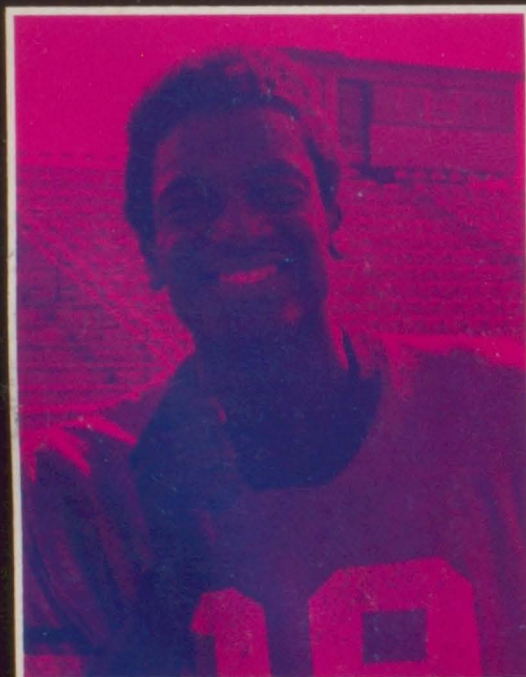

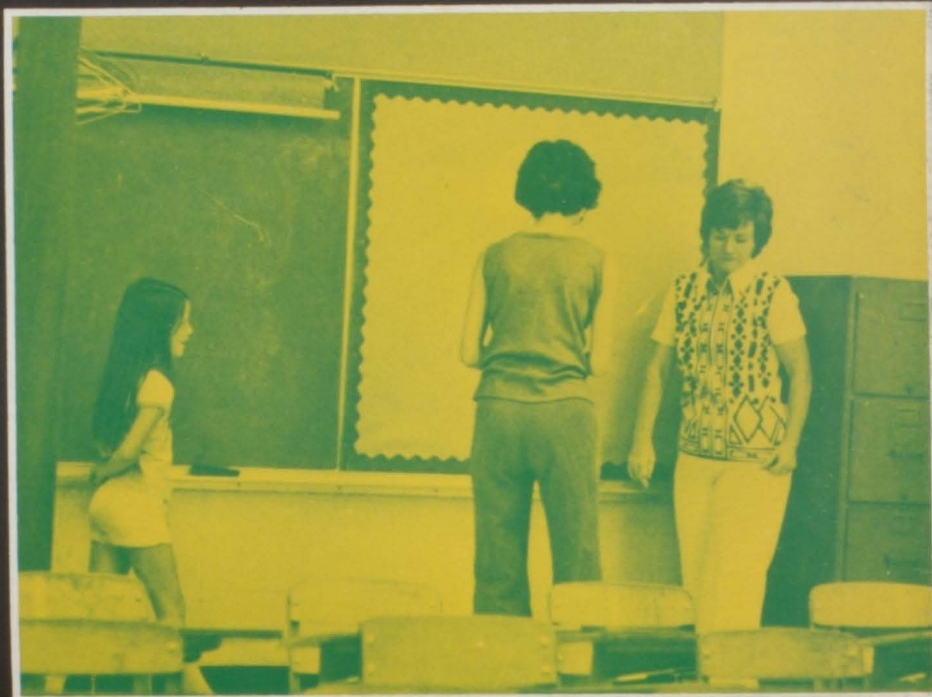

BELOW: Up, Up, and Away. Students love clowning around.

HOMECOMING HELD AT EHS

The parade, the game, the spirit--all this and more combined to make the Homecoming week of 1976 one to be remembered. Even as soon as the Monday before, the fervor and excitement began building. Floats were under construction; dresses were being bought by the Homecoming court; plans were being finalized for the coronation; everything began falling into place for that one special day--Homecoming.

And what a day it was! The whole student body witnessed the crowning of the queen that morning at the annual coronation ceremony. The parade entertained young and old alike with its colorful floats and beautiful young ladies. And as the climax of all the events, the Elba-Eu-fula game that night thrilled all and brought EHS spirit and pride to its maximum. Even though the Homecoming of 1976 is a memory now, we of EHS will always cherish the fun and excitement of that day.

Beauty, poise, personality and a bright smile. These are the things which make up a pretty girl and Michele McGuire has more than her share of each. Michele was chosen on April 15, 1976, from a list of 22 Elba beauties to wear the title of Miss Elba and to represent Elba in the National Peanut Festival.

Michele is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McGuire. She works as a receptionist at the Elba General Hospital and is a senior at Elba High. ## A LITTLE GIRL'S DREAM

There's nothing quite like being behind stage with thirty-four little girls as they experience their first pageant. The Little Miss Elba pageant was held on October 14, 1976. With eyes full of wonderment they ran around backstage not really realizing what was taking place. When the judges returned with the final decision, Miss Danon Lowrey was crowned as the winner.

Danon is the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Lowrey, Jr. She represented Elba in the National Peanut Festival held in Dothan.

Camilla Blasi was named second runner-up in the contest and Melanie Ann Barnes was named as first alternate.

FACES

ARE THE WINDOWS TO OUR EMOTIONS . . .

... AND THE DOORS TO OUR LIVES.

The face is more than just two eyes, a nose, and a mouth. The face mirrors the soul. Capable of so many different expressions, the face can force a frown into a smile, a tear into a cheery grin. Surprise, anguish, ecstasy--the face runs through the gamut of emotions everyday.

Here at Elba High School we have some of the most interesting faces in the world. But there is something very special about an Elba face. In every smile, in every twinkle of an eye, there appears an unquestionable contentment and happiness that comes with being an Elba High student. Indeed, the face is an important facet of our world.

ELBALA STAFF

One of the most awesome responsibilities assigned to the Seniors is that of creating the yearbook; this year we believe we have met the challenge well. We began the year totally unaware of the work, time, and patience needed to create an Elbala. Advice came from all directions, but no one could really tell us what was ahead. So we organized our staff, took our pictures, and plunged in.

How exasperating it was to stare at the blank layout page for the very first time! But after writing and re-writing, drawing and redrawing, our ideas began to take form. We finished a page, then two, and finally we were well on our way to creating hopefully the best yearbook Elba High School has seen.

As eventful as this year has been, we sometimes had problems with deciding just what to put in the 1977 Elbala. Homecoming, the Prom, Miss Elbala--all were occasions we shall long remember, especially we Seniors who shall never experience these events again. We dedicated ourselves to making a yearbook that, in years to come, will serve to jar memories and stir emotions. We have built this history around the unforgettable 1976-1977 year and our lives at Elba High School.

MARCHING TIGERS

THE BAND--PEOPLE
STRIVING TOGETHER TO BE THE BEST

ELBA HIGH SCHOOL BAND

"Stand at attention,"--"Pick up your feet." These are only a few things frequently heard at a rehearsal of the Elba High School Marching Tigers. What makes people go out in 100° sunshine or march through the mud for four hours without a break? Pride! And pride is what the Marching Tigers have plenty of. It takes much desire and dedication to achieve the superior position of a No. 1 band which the Marching Tigers have achieved and maintained for many years.

This year the Marching Band attended three marching contests--Troy Marching Band Festival, Gulf Coast Marching Band Festival, and the Enterprise Band Festival. The band received eleven superior ratings and three excellent ratings; many hours went into preparation for each.

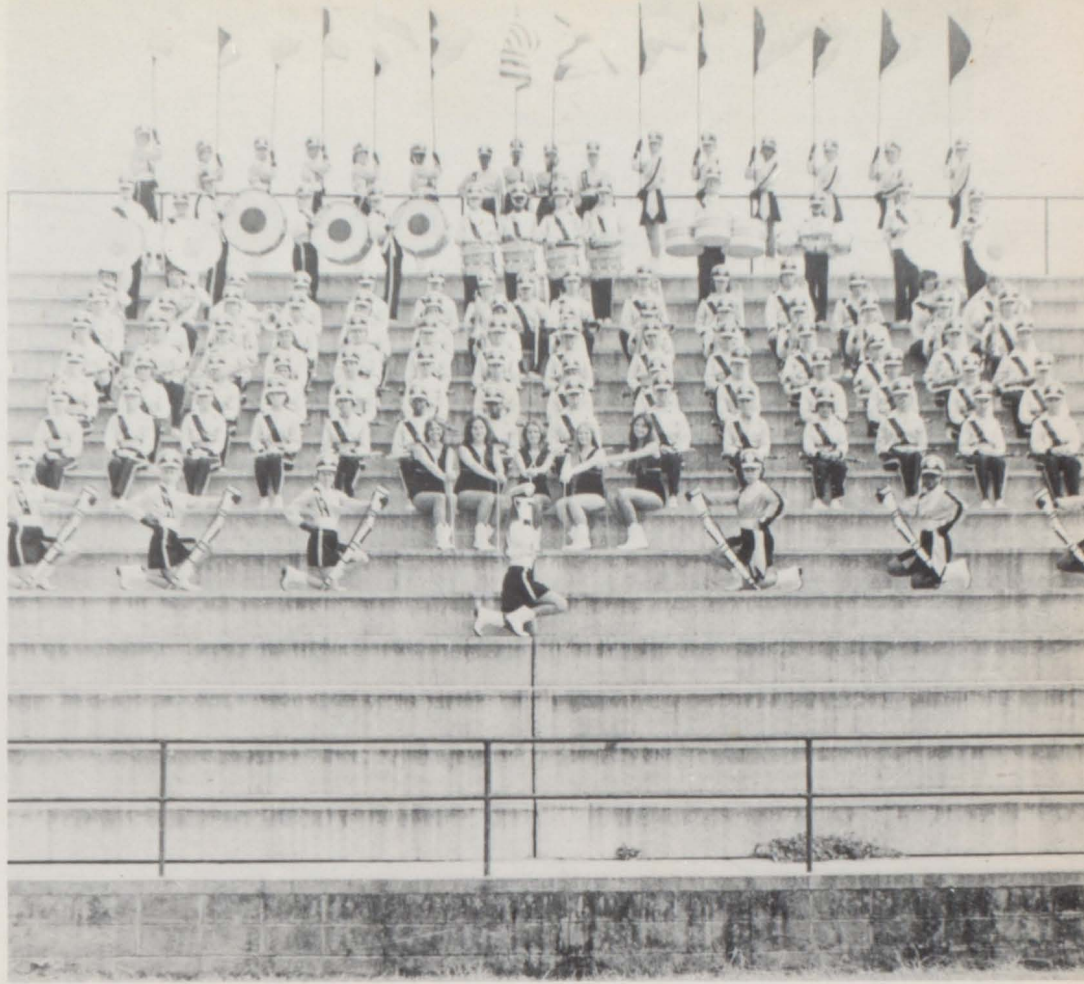

After marching season, the work had only begun. Concert season took not as much physical effort but twice the mental stress as marching band. It was very difficult to be a superior concert band, but the Symphonic Band made it seem easy, for in 1976 they made Superior ratings at State Contest for the first time ever in the band's history.

It's not easy, though, to have the fine reputation that the Elba High School Band has. All year the Elba Band participates in various activities and represents the City of Elba very well.

So many times it seems impossible to march another step or blow another note, but it is all worthwhile when the band director says, "Band . . . that was great."

OUR '76 YEAR IN FOOTBALL

Under the leadership of Coach "Mac" Champion, Elba football again returned to the winning track despite key injuries and lack of size. The Tigers proved that football is not just a game of power, but a sport that could be won through quickness and team unity.

The season started out with an impressive 22-0 win over a challenging Brundidge team. The offense moved the ball virtually at will all night due to the line's fine blocking. The second game found the Tigers never getting on track against Geneva. The game was played in a thunderstorm and Elba got the short end of a 17-0 game. As the Tigers went into the Luverne game, they were a different group. They were demoralized and lacked an essential element--confidence. But excellent playing turned around the game, and probably the season, as Elba won 14-13. As the Tigers prepared for Opp, they looked like a new club. Opp was coming in with a perfect record, but Elba had confidence and was playing at home for the first time. Elba's defense held Opp to two total yards in the second half and no points in the ballgame. The Tigers soared to a 20-0 win.

The next week, Elba journeyed to play a weak Dale County team. Everyone on the team played and the Tigers were 27-14 victors. Then came the game with Enterprise. The Tigers' scrappy style won over the fans, but a dejected Tiger team fell to the Wildcats with a 20-7 loss. The Tigers then visited the Trojans of Troy and quickly demolished their Homecoming. The Elba-Ashford game was picked as "Game-of-the-Week" and truly lived up to its billing. Victory was sweet as the Tigers roared to a 24-21 win. The last two games of the season were let-downs for the Tigers. Eufaula spoiled the Tigers' Homecoming with a 20-7 win, and the Tigers were defeated by the Andalusia Bulldogs 24-14.

For the year, the Tigers finished with a 6-4 record--a turn-around sparked by excellent coaching. In addition, Larry Phillips was named All-Conference, and several players received Honorable Mention. It was a fine year full of great accomplishments, and we salute the Tigers of 1976-77 for them.

SENIOR TIGERS ADD SPIRIT AND PRIDE

One of the most important elements for any successful group or team is a quality called "leadership". And in high school, that responsibility usually falls on a very elite and dignified group--the Seniors. Their guidance is especially helpful on the football field where the coach can do little but send in information. Seniors are called on by the coaches to keep spirits up and set examples for the others. Being a senior player is a position filled with many responsibilities and the Seniors of '77 have heartily accepted all challenges.

CHEERLEADERS INSPIRE PEP AT EVERY GAME

Elba High School was fortunate enough this year to have a superior group of young ladies in the varsity cheering squad. These girls have had the job of inspiring pep and spirit in the student body, and this has been a great responsibility both on the football field and the basketball court. The great potential of the group was seen early in the year, for these girls won numerous awards at a cheerleading clinic they attended at Auburn University in the summer. Since then they have done a wonderful job instilling pride in their fellow students of Elba High School. Indeed, the 1976-77 Varsity cheerleaders have made the year more exciting and memorable.

SCENES FROM THE 50's

CHEERLEADERS SPONSOR "50'S DAY"

In an attempt to boost pep and pride, the Elba cheerleaders sponsored a 50's day. Everyone was to come to school on that Friday dressed in 50's-type clothing, and since the spirit at EHS is so great, everyone did. It was amazing to see the imagination of some of our students, and even teachers. Long skirts, bobby socks, and greased-down hair abounded as Elba High School took a 20-year step backwards. But the fun of the day must be attributed to the cheerleaders who planned the day and supported it in every way possible.

JUNIOR TEAM ENJOYS WINNING SEASON

Led by Coach Mance Daughtry, the Junior Tigers rolled to an impressive 7-1 record, losing only to Andalusia. Highlighting the team's season were quarterback Alan King and runningbacks Harrelson and Thomas. The Tigers displayed an explosive offense and a very stingy defense throughout the season. Although it is not realized by many people, it is here where the Varsity players are developed.

FRONT ROW: Troy Brown, Anthony Coleman, Alonzo Hammonds, Franky Daniels, Greg Hudson, Scotty Farmer. SECOND ROW: Frank Thomas, Mike Harrelson, Ashley Young, Danny Baxley, Bobby Newton, Todd Westbrook. THIRD ROW: Tony Johns, Bobby Hall, Mark Davis, James Gibbs, Mason Morrow. # ELBA COACHES LEAD TEAMS TO VICTORIES

One of the most valuable assets to any team is a good coaching staff, and the Elba Tigers have one of the most respected in Alabama. They are lead by head coach Mac Champion, who has one of the best records in high school football. Assisting him are Sam Cooper, the backfield and B-Team basketball coach; Dale Crowe, the line coach; and Mance Daughtry, the junior football coach and Varsity basketball coach.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Perhaps the most spectator involved, and most highly spirited game at Elba is basketball. In basketball, the home court is a great advantage, for the fans make the home team play over their heads and also intimidate the visitor. But this year's team is a team that can play well anywhere. Inspired by Coach Mance Daughtry, the Tigers are aggressive and quick and one of the most exciting teams in Elba history.

PROM

Nothing can exemplify a class's organization, cooperation, and unity better than working on some common goal; thus, one of the greatest achievements of our senior class was that of creating the 1976 Junior-Senior Prom. It was a week of tire-some work, but the enjoyment and excitement gained from the planning and building was our reward.

The theme for the Prom was "Hawaii," and the most was made of it. Bamboo, nets, palm trees--nothing was overlooked as a method of decorating. Committees were formed to take care of each area of decoration, refreshments, and entertainment. Everyone had a job to do and no one was unimportant. But the effort and worry was worthwhile, for the senior class again proved what a splendid job it could do.

The emotions which exist in a Senior's heart are different with each Senior. Some consider being a Senior a sad experience while others consider it a happy experience. Despite the differences in opinion, as the final bell rings and the last locker door slams shut, we shall all realize we have heard the last sounds of childhood and have shut the last door to adolescence.

We can never sufficiently thank those who have enabled us to shut that final door. We will never forget what we owe our teachers. They have always been there for us when we needed them for guidance and friendship. They have taken the minds of children and have helped to shape them into the minds of young men and women.

As we step outside the halls of EHS for the last time, we face a new world with new horizons. No matter how far we travel from Elba High, we shall never lose the memories it holds. The experiences we had will live on and on, and the love we found for each other will be left etched on Elba High's walls forever, for when we leave we shall take part of EHS with us, yet we'll leave part of ourselves behind.

Except for becoming a Senior, the greatest thing that could happen is becoming a Junior. And we finally reached that step of the ladder! At last we were the Juniors of '77.

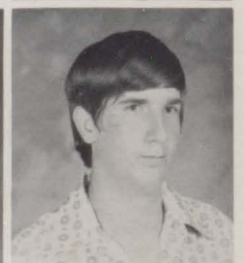

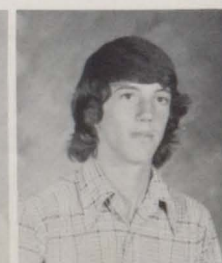

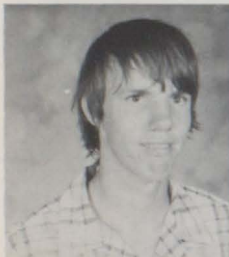

Electing officers wasn't to much of a task for us. After all, by looking at their picture, we think we did a fine job.

The time that many of us anticipated soon arrived. "What kind of ring did you order?" were familiar words for a few weeks. And those weeks became months as we waited the arrival of those precious things.

Our class had its share of beauty and personality. This was represented by having two of our own as runners-up in the Miss Elbala pageant. But to top that, "Miss Elbala" was a beautiful Junior. Also, in the Homecoming Court, we were represented by one from the Junior Class.

Four of the most spirited cheerleaders for this year were Juniors. They helped lead our star Junior football and basketball players to many victories.

With all this in mind, we feel as if we've left behind a good mark for ourselves. And with all the memories of this year stored, we have come to the greatest thing--becoming Seniors of '78!

AND SO OUR WORLD CHANGES

as we continue to journey through life, but the memories, the friends, the love--all the parts of our lives here at Elba High will remain with us . . .

... YES, AS WE SING

for the last time "Our strong band will n'er be broken . . .," we shall realize that no matter where or when we find ourselves looking back to earlier times in our lives, these days at EHS will always be remembered . . .

FOR WE REALIZE

our tomorrow could not exist without a fond hand on yesterday and a firm grip on today. And thus, because of the loving preparation we have received, we face tomorrow and hold it as a new and exciting challenge. Indeed, we have reason enough to think proudly on our world at EHS.

A FINAL NOTE —

In the process of our work, we have learned more than how to create a yearbook. We have learned -or perhaps we have discovered - - just how much the people and principles of Elba High School mean to us. We can't help becoming just a little misty-eyed as we see that, just as work on the annual must end, the time is coming for us to leave the familiar halls and rooms of EHS for a final time. With a feeling of deep respect and love, we, the seniors of 1977, present this chronical of our world at Elba High School.
